Porter requested that Reese, Kelly, Stoddart and himself be appointed as the 2018 Committee, subject to acceptance by those who were absent. McClure approved. Commissioners expressed support for combining the Orchids ceremony with an event celebrating final approval of the updated Fort Russell Neighborhood Historic District. Proposed dates are September 27 and October 4, 2018.

5. Third Street Interpretive Signage

Ray will prepare a revised full-size printout of the interpretive sign for the 1912 Center, including photo captions, for discussion at the March meeting. McClure requested help identifying the appropriate photo credits to be included.

6. Preservation Moscow

McClure will continue her efforts to contact Barbara Coyner and report back at the next meeting.

7. Social Media Committee

The committee has not met yet and its chairperson has resigned from the commission. New committee members will be sought at the March meeting.

8. Future Historic Districts

Commissioners discussed a possible future historic district encompassing parts of the University of Idaho campus. Some members expressed concern about using City funds to draft a Historic Register nomination for property owned by another public entity. McClure circulated a draft letter addressed to Ray Pankopf and other UI officials offering to share the Commission's expertise (but not monetary participation) if the University should choose to proceed with such a nomination. Commissioners agreed with this approach. McClure will make suggested revisions to the letter and circulate again before delivery.

The meeting adjourned at 5:30 p.m.
