Members also committed to snow removal forces once winter sets in, more planning will be taken when necessary. Members also decided to pursue a turkey drive for Moscow families in need this Thanksgiving. The plan is for Kellen to talk to the head of the Moscow Food Bank, Linda Nickols, about the number of turkeys they anticipate needing this year. After, teams were formed to go and speak to the following grocery stores in Moscow: Winco (James and Sam), Safeway (Jackson and Rory), Walmart (Marilea and Sophia), and Rosauers (Noah and Kellen). After the number of turkeys needed is determined, Sophia will work on a professional letter to give to the managers in charge of donations for each grocery store. If anybody has input on this letter please contact Sophia directly. We also determined that we should begin sending thank you cards to organizations that help MYAC to host events, this will take place after Thanksgiving. Brandon encouraged members to consider creating a float for the Winter Carnival on December 6th, these plannings will take place outside of official meetings in an all-member sub committee.
