The meeting was called to order at 4:31 PM

MEMBERS PRESENT: Wendy McClure, Chair; Cynthia King, Jack Porter, Nels Reese

MEMBERS ABSENT: Jared Norman

OTHERS IN ATTENDANCE: Art Bettge, Aimee Hennrich

1. Approval of minutes from December 12, 2019

Porter moved approval of the minutes as presented, seconded by Reese. Motion carried by acclamation.

2. Election of Officers

Reese nominated McClure to continue as Chair, seconded by Porter. Porter nominated Reese as Vice Chair, seconded by King. King was nominated to serve as Secretary by McClure, seconded by Reese. All motions carried by acclamation.

3. 2020 Preservation Moscow

Commissioners agreed they preferred a four-page publication rather than eight pages. Possible themes included mid-century modern homes in Moscow, an historic UI District, highlighting homes between Third and Sixth Streets, perhaps bring back the scavenger hunt feature, or do a more lasting brochure about historic districts rather than Preservation Moscow.

4. Review Status of Library Interpretive Sign

McClure took photos of reading areas within the Library. She has edited the draft sign text and will provide review copies at the next meeting. Porter suggested printing the interpretive signs as 8.5x11" handouts, or perhaps as restaurant placemats.

5. Future Interpretive Signage

Friendship Square and Fort Russell neighborhoods were suggested as potential future sign locations.

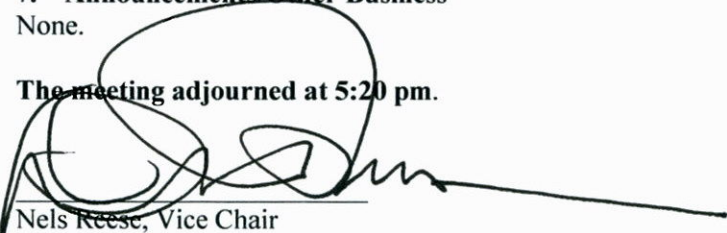

6. Discuss Recruitment Strategies

Commissioners discussed using the City social media, the Latah County Historical Society email distribution and a Daily News article as possible means to recruit additional Commission members.

7. Announcements/Other Business

None.

The meeting adjourned at 5:20 pm.

Nels Reese, Vice Chair
