However, the formality of procedures varies with the purpose and subject of the agenda item; therefore, the Mayor may exercise discretion in deciding when to allow public comment during the course of the proceedings and limitations may be placed on the time allowed for comments. Citizens wishing to comment on business that is not on the agenda will be provided the opportunity to do so during the public comment item on the agenda. If you plan to address the Council, you will find a list of "Tips for Addressing the Council" in the door pocket outside the City Council Chambers. Idaho Code Section 63-215 states that taxing districts that alter their boundaries must prepare and file the legal description and map of the new district boundary within 30 days of the amendment or no later than the tenth day of January of the year following the alteration. The City recently amended the City boundary through the annexations of the Gary Peterson property (1825 N Polk Extension) on January 18th, 2022, and the Edington Estates property on November 7th, 2022. Staff has prepared a new City Limits ordinance which includes the updated legal description and boundary map for the Council's approval and transmission to the State Tax Commission and Latah County Recorder and Assessor offices. This matter has been scheduled for consideration by the Council at the upcoming January 3, 2023 meeting.

PROPOSED ACTIONS: Approve the Ordinance under suspension of the rules requiring three complete and separate readings and that it be read by title and published by summary; or consider the Ordinance on first reading and that it be read by title; or reject the Ordinance; or take such other action deemed appropriate.
